Austin Tenette

Executive Growth Partner

Austin is a Certified Executive Leadership and Business Coach, leveraging decades of business experience to achieve transformative change in individuals and their enterprises. His business coaching philosophy revolves around the three key drivers of profitable, sustainable, and exponential growth: Strategic Direction and Execution, Customer Experience, and Team Dynamics. Before venturing into Leadership Coaching, Austin showcased his prowess as a business development executive with global giants KPMG and Ernst & Young. His roles involved executing the financial, strategic, and operational success of a $42 million business unit, overseeing over 300 client relationships, 14 managerial direct reports and 1,700 employees.

His commitment to paying it forward is evident through his past role as the host of the weekly TV segment, "Better Business Results – with Coach Austin Tenette" where he shared invaluable insights on enhancing organizational performance.
